Garrison Moves To Get Witnesses

NEW ORLEANS, Lz. (AP) — Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison moved on two fronts today to get witnesses he wants in his John F. Kennety assassination conspiracy grobe.

The district attorney's office issued a warrant Monday for the arrest of Lilly Mae Mo-Mainer, 22, Omaha, Neb. as a amsterial witness. The U.S. attorney's office was saled by Carrison to issue an asked by Garrison to issue an inlawful flight order against Gordon Novel, 25, finner owner of a French Quarter bar who disappeared last week before the was to have appeared before the Orleans Parish grand Jury.

IF U.S. ATTY. Louis LaCour phonour Gazrison's request, it would bring the FBI into the search for Novel.

Sonte federal authorities are income to look upon Garrison's invastigation with a cold eye. The Warren Commission, named by President Johnson to forestigate the assantiation of President Remedy in Dallas, Tex., Nov. 22, 1963, concluded that New Orlean-born Lee Barvey Oswald was the assassin and acted alone.

Carrison's office issued a warrant last week for Novel's arrest and asked that he be placed under $50,000 bond.

PERRY R. RUSSO, 25. a Raton Rouge insurance salesman, said Mrs. McMaines, then known gas Sandra Molfett, was one of several persons attending a party in the New Orleans aparty in the New Orleans aparment of the late David W. Ferrie in mid-September 1963.
After this party, Russo testified two weeks ago, he heard Ferrie, Oswald and Clay L. Shaw conspire to kill President Keemedy.

Shaw, 54, a retired New Orleans business executive, has been indicted by the grand jury on a charge of conspiring to murder Kennedy.

Mrs. McMaines, married to part-time Omaha minister Harold McMaines, 48, told newamen last week she did not attend the party but said she had known Russo.

Russo.

Criminal Dist. Judge Edward

A. Haggerty Jr., who will conduct Shaw's trial, signed the warrant for Mrs. McMaines as a material witness and set bond at $5,000.
